Hi Magazine administrative work

As a person who's been to more than 50 countries round the whole world, I'm sure to say that Ireland is worth visiting. The wild landscape meeting the mighty and varicoloured ocean inspired me greatly when I was passing it or even painting by the shore. The only opportunity explored the unknown place and be able to live, work and study with locals influenced me and gave much mental food to think about during the following months. I've obviously faced a great deal of challenges as making myself be flexible in getting along with other people (not only members of a student team).

I've also developed my language skills of Czech, French and English: such internship is one of the best ways to get involved in the sphere of job you want to be connected with in your future. I was lucky to work in Hi Magazine as this host-company turned out to be friendly to me and enormously creative. Job there made me seriously think of the career I'd really enjoy. Moreover, sharing the accommodation with students from all over the world gave me an idea of making friends with foreigners.

I'm so grateful to the Erasmus+ organization and my OA Praha school. They both made my dream (spend a month in Cobh, Cork and Dublin) come true. And I should underline the great support during the whole preparation time, trip and after-coming completing documents. I would certainly recommend other students to take such opportunity.
